

General Evaluator

The job of the general evaluator is to evaluate anything and everything that takes place throughout the meeting. The general evaluator is responsible for the evaluation team which consists of the speech evaluators, timer and grammarian. The general evaluator will introduce each member of the evaluation team who will provide their report at the end of table topics voting. At the conclusion of the evaluation team reports, the general evaluator will provide an overall meeting evaluation.